

I love!
She radiates like sunlight from my heart,
I overflow - bright like a star.
In love - am love - from which I come
To be, to feel it pouring through.

I create!
This stunning world, this precious moment,
Infinity in my Beloved's eyes.
Each tiny seed - colossal forest
I carefully imagine into being.

I feel!
I savor every juicy "now" and now... and now...
It makes me feel alive - it's how I know I'm loved!
I feel it in my breath, in every heartbeat -
The purpose of these tears of joy.
